LONDON, JANUARY 6.

A New treaty is just concluded between our Court and the Emperor of Morocco, by which the British are to be allowed all the privileges of their trade in the Morocco dominions, for five years; and the Barbary ports are to be always open to British vessels.

The business of drawing bills is now almost entirely at a stand on the 'Change, those who have money not choosing to part with it by any means, and the most intimate friends entertaining an anxious apprehension with respect to each others solvency.

JANUARY 7.

The titles of Dukes of York and Lancaster, are shortly to be revived in the persons of Prince Edward and Prince Ernest Augustus, his Majesty's younger sons.

It is supposed, that no less than 150 petitions from Counties and Corporations, are ready to be laid before an august assembly, complaining of the high price of provisions.

It is reported that the Ministry begin so seriously to think of the late disasters in Holland, that they have sent off two dispatches within this week, to Sir Joseph Yorke, Ambassador at the Hague, to consult with him on the same.

It is now currently reported, that a certain Scotch Peer has obtained a pension in favour of one of his countrymen, who has some time since become a bankrupt, and that the pension is to continue during the joint lives of the bankrupt and his lady, and the survivor of them. No wonder 200,000l. a year addition is talked of to the Civil List.

From Lyons, in France, they write, that two very eminent Houses in that city have just stopped payment, and said to be occasioned by the late failures in Holland.

JANUARY 9.

We hear that a plan is under consideration of the Board of Trade, for clearing, cultivating, and better peopling East and West-Florida.

Orders are sent to Hanover for some hundred persons, engaged in that electorate, to be shipped off at the Government's expence for both the Floridas.

A plan is now under consideration for establishing a Royal British Newfoundland Company, which will produce a large annual revenue to the Crown.

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, Jan. 2, 1773.

"The late failures at Amsterdam have materially affected several Houses both here and at Rotterdam, so that we are daily in expectance of beholding many capital Merchants insolvent. Many people assert, that the credit of Holland is hourly sinking, and that the unfortunate break at Amsterdam is only a prelude to some of far greater consequence. Heaven avert them! as the effects may severely affect all Europe. The ships and troops destined for Surinam, are almost in a condition to sail, and 'tis expected they will entirely restore peace to that settlement."

Another letter from the Hague, says,—"The fears of the Merchants and Traders, on account of the late failures at Amsterdam, begin to subside, after the very favourable accounts we have received from Rotterdam, Hamburg, and Zealand. Most of the monied men in this country have contributed very largely to prevent any further ill consequences, and we hear that the affairs of the Cliffords will be made up much sooner than we expected."

It is supposed that the misfortunes to Trade are not yet over, and that many bills will shortly be presented at the West end of the town, to persons who it is conjectured will stop payment, after which several bankruptcies will probably ensue, but what is very remarkable, not to the persons who stop payment, but to the traders that present the bills.

It is said that the Dutch and French, upon the present distress in their public credit, cry out as loudly against the Scotch as the English do, that they insist the shameful practice of extracting all the current coin of England, by circulating a fictious paper credit to make good their purchases in the ceded islands, first brought on the numerous bankruptcies in England, and that that did, of course, ruin the credit of the great Houses in Holland and France, with whom they were connected; and it seems to be the current opinion with our neighbours, that, had not the Scotch been favourites at Court, the delinquents would have shared the fate of the South-Sea Directors, in the year 1720, in punishment as they have in guilt.

Advices from Aleppo, by way of Leghorn, say, that Jaffa and Jerusalem are both in the hands of Ali Bey, who has declared, that if he was joined by the King of Prussia, he would overturn the Ottoman empire.

All thoughts of an accommodation between his Polish Majesty and his enemies, it is now said, are at an end, for such have been the rigorous steps of a certain grasping Monarch, that his unfortunate kingdom is cantoned out to foreigners; and the Poles, like the Jews, must now wander from province to province, without any settled place of residence.

It is generally believed, that the present Administration will receive a shock on the expiration of Parliament, their permanence being no other than a kind of temporary toleration for value received.

It is said that a certain Baronet has received a greater shock by the late failures in Holland than he ever before experienced.

They write from Spain, that orders have been sent from that Court to the kingdom of Naples, respecting the commerce carried on there by the English, and which, it is said, will not be very agreeable to them.

JANUARY 12.

There are no less than forty appeals now depending before the House of Lords, whence it is apprehended that the Parliament will not rise till after the Whitsun holidays.

On Friday Sir James Gray, Knight of the Bath, being seized with a fit while attending the levee at St. James's, was carried home in a chair, and died on Saturday morning.

ST. JAMES'S, January 9. The King has been pleased to appoint the Right Hon. Frederick North, commonly called Lord North, Knight of the most noble order of the Garter, the Rt. Hon. George Onslow, Jeremiah Dyson, Charles Townshend, and Charles-James Fox, Esqrs; to be his Majesty's commissioners for executing the office of Treasurer of his Majesty's Exchequer.

WARSAW (Poland) Dec. 16. They write from Prezmisl, that provisions there are at an immense price; and to increase the misery of the inhabitants, the lands are so infested with mice, that the wheat and rye in the ground are devoured by them; insomuch, that in some places they have been obliged to sow their corn three times over. These animals likewise destroy great quantities of hay and corn in the barns; and there are such multitudes of them, that it seems as if they were collected there from all parts of Europe.

VERSAILLES (France) Dec. 30. The Duke d'Orleans, and the Duke de Chartres, having written a letter to the King, setting forth that it is, and ever will be, their determination to submit upon all occasions to his Majesty's royal will and pleasure, his Majesty permitted them to be introduced to him the 26th instant, and likewise to the rest of the Royal Family.

PARIS, January 1. We just this moment learnt, that the Doge of Genoa died in the night of the 21st ult.

LONDON, JANUARY 12.

They write from Warsaw, that two very powerful Courts have lately given his Polish Majesty the strongest assurances of their intention to preserve the Sovereignty of Poland on the present establishment, and that a protest has been published, signed by the King and all the Polish Nobility against the dismemberment in consequence thereof.

They write from Paris, that a treaty is actually negociating between Great-Britain, France, Sweden, and the States General, for preserving the independency of Poland.

Advices from Leghorn say, that the Court of Tuscany has at last declared itself the ally of the Russians, and put itself under the protection of that power.

Instead of the Banking business sinking into dispute, from the shock received in the public opinion of some late great failures, we are told there is a new House preparing in the neighbourhood of Portland-Square, which is to open with a million of money.

It is said that at Lady-Day next an additional advance will be made by our Brewers upon Beer, so as to justify the publican in selling it for four pence the quart.—Thus it is that our grievances are redressed.

Last night a meeting of Publicans was held at the Spread-Eagle, in the Strand, to consider of the proposed advance in the price of Porter to four pence a pot, when, after many learned arguments in Welch, Scotch, Irish, and the St. Giles's dialect, it was carried nem. con. to take place on Saturday next.

This morning a petition, signed by several of the inhabitants of St. Clements and St. Mary Le-Strand, was presented to Lord North, praying his Lordship to prevent the above advances taking place.

Extract of a Letter from Paris, December 31.

"On Tuesday last, about ten o'clock at night, a fire broke out in the Hotel Dieu, occasioned by the melting of Tallow, which caught fire, and burnt with too much rapidity to be stopt. Upwards of 500 poor sick or maimed perished in the flames.—As it was situated on the banks of the Seine, many hundred unhappy souls threw themselves from the walls and windows into that river, most of whom were drowned or killed in the fall. In a word, where there were between 200 and 300 women, I heard of but two who escaped the flames. Two Friars (Capuchines) with twelve of the French guards perished, in assisting to stop the progress of the fire. It is still burning, and has communicated to a grocer's shop, and several other houses, in a street leading to Notre Dame; they are burnt to the ground; and as it has now hold of a magazine of oil, the consequences must be dreadful. The servant, whose negligence has been the occasion of this terrible disaster escaped, but was taken this morning, with two pair of sheets, which he had stolen, and is lodged in the Chatelet."

Extract of a Letter from Edinburgh, dated Jan. 8.

"On Wednesday last several hundred persons assembled at Dundee, in a riotous manner, and carried off about 400 bolls of Wheat and Barley from the pack-house there; they then proceeded to a ship lying in the harbour, from whence they took away a considerable quantity of victuals; after which they broke open two cellars, and carried off a great quantity of potatoes. The Magistrates read the Riot Act, and took every method in their power to disperse them, but in vain."

JANUARY 14.

It is said to be in contemplation, to people the extensive country of Labrador in North-America, several Scotch and Irish families having engaged to undertake the same upon proper encouragement.

Extract of a Letter from Madrid, December 14.

"We have lately had the disagreeable news some time since received from South-America, more fully authenticated than ever. A Spanish ship of war, named the Asturias, Don Antonio de Mereida commander, but just arrived at Cadiz from the South Seas, confirms it; and adds, that when he sailed from the city of Conception, in Chili, the natives were entirely in possession of the town of Castro, on the island of Chili, and likewise of the whole island itself; also that the Chilese Indians had attacked the city of Jago, the Capital, and burnt great part of it to the ground."

Extract of a Letter from Copenhagen, dated the 2d instant.

"I have the pleasure to acquaint you, that the face of affairs is greatly changed for the better since I wrote to you last. The King, by advice of his council, has assumed the reins of government, and forbad the Queen Dowager, and Prince Frederick, her son, from concerning themselves any more with state affairs, on pain of being sent out of the kingdom. This was a mortifying stroke to that bold and aspiring woman, who was aiming to set her son upon the throne, and would not have cared what innocent blood she had shed, could she have gained her ambitious ends; but, thank God, all her wicked schemes proved abortive. Neither she nor her son have since appeared at Court, and if they are seen abroad, they always receive the greatest marks of contempt from the people. It is confidently asserted, that they have orders to quit this capital, and retire to the city of Hadderfleve. I hope this will prove true, and I believe every true and honest Dane wishes the same, for they certainly have been the cause of all our troubles. It is believed that all matters are settled for our amiable Queen Caroline Matilda to return here again, as it is discovered that the charge brought against her was groundless, and that the two unfortunate Counts Struensee and Brandt suffered wrongfully. I hope in my next to give you an account that peace and harmony are again restored in this unhappy kingdom."

JANUARY 15.

A correspondent remarks, that the creatures of Administration circulated an opinion in the news-papers, that Mr. Wilkes loses his popularity, and will shortly sink into his original nothing, as if we were to say, that Admiral Hawke is a coward, because the French do not furnish him with an opportunity of shewing his courage; the Ministry content themselves with knowing they have absolute power, and refrain from acts of despotic violence at present; should they venture again upon general warrants, attack the liberty of the press, advise unlawful proclamations, Wilkes's popularity will revive and flourish in every corner of the kingdom.

Suicide becomes so fashionable at both ends of the town, that the employment of parish searchers is as lucrative as that of a custom-house officer, not from the salary allowed for doing their duty, but from the perquisites made by betraying their trust.

A correspondent informs us, that Mr. Dunning has been offered a very lucrative post, if he would retire from the bar, which he politely declined accepting.

Two more very considerable houses have stopped payment at Amsterdam..

It is computed that the merchants at Hamburgh have lost by the different failures at Amsterdam and England near 300,000l.

It is said that the distresses of this kingdom are so numerous, that the Ministry is totally at a loss to know which to endeavour to apply a remedy to first.

Lord Dartmouth, we are well assured, expressed to Mr. Garth, member for the Devises, the highest satisfaction at the plan for manufacturing starch from Rice, as it might be a means of saving, for the industrious poor, immense quantities of wheat, now made into starch; and indeed, if the benefit that will thereby arise to the colonies, as well as the service that will be rendered to the public throughout the kingdom, be considered, it is not to be wondered at, that a Nobleman, formed for every Christian virtue, should countenance and patronize a measure so obviously calculated for national utility.

The Bostonians, whatever opprobrious epithets may have been bestowed on them, seem, says a correspondent, well to understand, that firmness is a first-rate qualification in the patriotic character, and that he who has once entered the lists in behalf of the laws or the liberties of the people, must neither be wearied by days, tempted by artful representations, [illegible] by threats, or allured by fair promises, to desert his ground, all which are the common arms and finesses of a designing Administration.

The Ministry, it is said, find already a strong opposition to their efforts to secure a Parliament to their liking at the next general election, the friends of liberty having their eyes at length open, and being justly alarmed for the safety of their country.

A fleet of 19 men of war is talked of to rendezvous early in the spring at Portsmouth.

JANUARY 19.

They write from Dantzick, that the propositions made to that city on the part of the King of Prussia were rejected, and immediately after the cannon were placed upon the ramparts.

The Clerks in the Secretary of State's office for the American department, have received orders to give due attendance, in order to prepare the papers relative to America for the House of Commons.

The powers who have parcelled out the territories of Poland, are, it is said, going to quarrel about the division of the bear's skin; and should hostilities commence between them, the flames of war, instead of being extinguished, would probably spread over the greatest part of Europe; and England, as well as France, be involved therein. Our Ministry will, if possible, avoid it, and keep the kingdom from being engaged in any foreign war, as it may obstruct the full execution of their arbitrary plan of government at home: but if subsisting treaties are observed and regarded, it will be impossible for them to prevent the nation's being a party in it.

In a great many boroughs, as well as counties, there are persons now very active in making interest against the next general election; from whence it is not unreasonable to conjecture, that the Ministry have a design of taking the people unawares, and jockeying the nation, by dissolving the present Parliament at the end of this session, and packing another next summer. But if the people of England have any virtue, any regard for their freedom, any love for themselves and their posterity remaining, they will exert their utmost endeavours to frustrate so iniquitous an intention.

Extract of a Letter from Warsaw, December 26.

"All the misfortunes with which Poland is at present afflicted, were very remarkably predicted in every circumstance by John Casimir, one of the Kings of Poland, in a discourse he made to the States assembled in 1661, when he announced to them his resolution of abdicating the Crown. The Poles could not think that the discourse of that Prince, who after having been a Jesuit, and then a Cardinal, mounted the throne, afterwards abdicated his Crown, and was made a Monk in France, where he died, was a prophecy which should be fulfilled in our days. This piece, which is in a work of John Lunig, is too interesting for us to omit giving the heads of it.—'I foresee (says 'he) the misfortunes which threaten our country, and I wish it 'may please God to make me a false prophet. The Muscovite 'and the Cossack will join the people who talk the same lan-'guage with themselves, and will possess themselves of the 'Duchy of Lithuania. The confines of Grand Poland will be 'open to Brandebourg, and Prussia itself will, either by treaty 'or the force of arms, make war upon our territory. In this 'dismemberment of our estates, the House of Austria will not 'let slip the opportunity to seize on Cracow. Each of our neigh-'bours will rather chuse, by force of arms, to gain a part of 'Poland, than to wait to possess, some day or other, perhaps, a 'kingdom whose ancient privileges defend it from the enter-'prizes of foreign powers.'

CONSTANTINOPLE, (Turky) December 3. The total defeat of the squadron commanded by the Bashaw of Scutari, by the Russian fleet, does not seem to alter the pacific dispositions of the Porte; on the contrary, that Court not only lays the fault on the Bashaw, who equipped that squadron without having received any orders, but has also sent a Capigi to the Morea to strangle the Bashaw's son, who commanded that squadron.

CHARLES-TOWN, MARCH 22.

WE were misinformed, when we acquainted our Readers last Week, that only Eight Writs of Election had been returned on the 8th Instant.—Thirty-five Members have qualified, and taken their Seats in the Commons House; and more, it is thought, will take their Seats To-Morrow. The Tax-Bill was read a second Time on Saturday.——Mr. Evance was not elected for Prince William's Parish; John Ward, Esq; was——some new Writs are issued for what Parishes our Readers shall be informed in our next; when a List will also be given them, of all the Gentlemen who shall then have taken their Seats.

On Tuesday last, a Horse lately brought from England, now called Carolina, with much Ease, beat the famous Horse Davy (who had lately won so many Matches) for 200 Guineas.

The same Day Thomas Bee, Esq; was married, to Mrs. Sarah Mackenzie, Relict of the late John Mackenzie, Esq;—A Lady possessed of such natural and acquired Accomplishments, with such a Fortune, as cannot fail to make the Nuptial State the most desirable on Earth.

On Wednesday last the Friendly Brothers of St. Patrick, held an Anniversary Meeting at Mr. Holliday's Tavern; where they had a very elegant Entertainment, and chose the following Gentlemen Officers of their Society, viz.

The Hon. THOMAS KNOX GORDON, Esq; President;
JAMES PARSONS, Esq; Vice-President;
THOMAS PRIOR, Esq; Treasurer & Secretary;
Mr. MACARTAN CAMPBELL, } Stewards.
EDWARD RUTLEDGE, Esq; }

Thursday being the Anniversary of His Majesty's gracious Repeal of the Stamp-Act, the same was observed here by that Society only, in this Town, who always have commemorated it (with decent Joy) as an Event, that in a great Measure restored that Cordiality, which ought never to have been impaired, between British and American Brethren; and also by Captain Stone, on James-Island, as usual, who annually, on that Day, gives his Company a genteel Entertainment, and celebrates it, by many loyal and constitutional Toasts, with a Discharge of Cannon after each, and Illuminations at Night.

The same Day Mr. Robert Ladson (who was admitted an Attorney at the last Court of Commons Pleas) was married to Miss Sally Fleming, only Daughter of the late Thomas Fleming, Esquire.

The same Day Mr. James Smyth, Merchant, was married to Miss Ann Thomas, Daughter of Samuel Thomas, Esq;

On Friday last arrived here His Majesty's Packet-Boat Diligence, commanded by Captain Arthur Clark; in which came Passengers, Thomas Ross, and —— Pascoe, Esqrs; of Jamaica.

Yesterday arrived the Swallow Packet-Boat, commanded by Captain Copeland, in eight Weeks from Falmouth.

The late Failures in Holland, do not appear to affect the Vent of our Produce in the least.—No new Rice had yet been got to Market, when the Packet-Boat left England.

The Quantity of Rice shipped and cleared, from this Port only, since the First of November last, is 68,091 Tierces.—There has been a great Struggle between the Buyers and Sellers here, to lower and raise the Price for some Weeks past, but at present it seems fixt at 60*s.* per Hundred Weight.

Twelve Barrels of Rough Rice has already been shipped, in the Magdalen, Captain Dick, for Dunbar, for the Starch Manufacturers.

Yesterday Morning died, Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes, aged 69 Years.—A Native of this Province.

ERRATA in our last.—Instead of "THOMAS FARR, jun. "Clerk," at the latter Part of the Address of the Commons House, read, "RAWLINS LOWNDES, Speaker."

The LIBRARY SOCIETY, OF CHARLES-TOWN,

TAKING into their Consideration, the many Advantages and great Credit that would result to this Province, from a full and accurate NATURAL HISTORY of the same, and being desirous to promote so useful a Design, have appointed a Committee of their Number to collect and prepare Materials for that Purpose.

That this may be done in the most complete and extensive Manner, they do now invite every Gentleman who wishes well to the Undertaking, especially those who reside in the Country, to co-operate with them in the Advancement of this Plan.—For this Purpose, the Society would request such Gentlemen to procure and send to them, all the natural Productions, either Animal, Vegetable, or Mineral, that can be had in their several Bounds, with Accounts of the various Soils, Rivers, Waters, Springs, &c. and the most remarkable Appearances of the different Parts of the Country.

Of the Animal Tribe, they would wish to have every Species, whether Terrestrical or Aquatic, viz. Quadrupedes, Birds, Fishes, Reptiles, Insects, Worms, &c. with the best Accounts of their Customs and natural Habitudes.

Of Vegetables, they will thankfully receive every Kind, from the loftiest Tree in the Forest, to the smallest Plant of the Fields.—A complete Specimen of any Tree or Plant, will be Two small Branches of each, one having the Flower in full Blossom, and the other the ripe Fruit.—At the same Time the Society beg to be furnished with the best Accounts that can be given of the Uses and Virtues, either in Agriculture, Commerce, or Medicine, of which such Tree or Plant is possessed—the Soil in which it most commonly grows—the Season in which it flowers, and when it bears its Fruit.

They would be glad to be furnished also with Specimens of all the various Fossils, Minerals, and Ores, the different Soils, Earths, Clays, Marles, Stones, Sands, Shells, &c the Productions of this Province, with the best Accounts of their several Natures, Qualities, Situations, and Uses.

The Society, in order that this Design may be carried into immediate Execution, have fitted up a Museum for the Reception and Preservation of Specimens of these several natural Productions, and have appointed CHARLES-COTESWORTH PINCKNEY, and THOMAS HEYWARD, jun. Esquires, with ALEXANDER BARON, and PETER FAYSSOUX, Physicians, in Charles-Town, to receive them; to whom all Letters of Intelligence, Specimens, &c. are to be addressed.

And they flatter themselves, that the evident Utility of the Plan, will engage such a Number of public spirited Gentlemen to assist them, that they will soon be enabled to make a considerable Progress.—They will not only gratefully receive all such Communications, and apply themselves in the best Manner they can for the above Purposes, but the Names of such shall be recorded as Promoters of, and Contributors to, so useful a Work.

Any Expence that may be incurred by forwarding Letters of Intelligence, Specimens, &c. to Town, the Society will chearfully repay. By Order of the Committee,

JOHN MURRAY, Chairman.

RETURNS his most grateful Acknowledgments to the Public in general, for the Favours he has received in that Branch, but not finding sufficient Employment in it, he intends, for the future, to carry on the Business of

House-Painting, in Town and Country;

And, as he was First bred to that Business, hopes he shall be able to give entire Satisfaction to those who shall be pleased to employ him, as he will not trust to Negroes (which is too common) to perform the finishing Part of the Business which he may be favoured with the Execution of.

N. B. Two smart Negro-Boys are wanted as Apprentices.

BRAM, a stout, well-made black Fellow, full round Face, about thirty Years of Age, and about five Feet ten Inches high,

JUNE, a slim black Fellow, long thin Visage, about Twenty-five Years old, and five Feet eight Inches high.——They changed their Names after they went away, but may be well known by the Brand which each of them have on their right Breast, viz. DANIEL HEYWARD.

Fifty Pounds Reward.
RUN AWAY
From the SUBSCRIBER, on Tuesday last,
A NEGRO-FELLOW, named PETER,

Of the Guinea Country, about Twenty-seven Years old, middle sized, well made, speaks very bad English, but is active and artful; a Cabinet-Maker by Trade, and was formerly the Property of Mr. STEPHEN TOWNSEND.—The Subscriber is apprehensive that he is concealed on board of some Vessel, and hereby cautions all Masters of Vessels from carrying him off, and others from harbouring him, as such Offenders may depend on being prosecuted.

HENRY CASSELS, J. P.

The SUBSCRIBER
WANTS Ten Thousand Bushels
OF
Clean, dry SHELLS,

And will contract with any Person for that Quantity, or any Part thereof, to be delivered any Time before the Last of September.

HE has now, he thanks God, an Opportunity to acquaint the Gentlemen in the landed and trading Interest, That the WHOLE FRONT of his WHARF on the River (full Eight Hundred and Forty Feet) is so far finished, as to be fit for Business from one End to the other;—Two Ships having been entirely loaded this Crop at the Northernmost End thereof. That even in its present Situation, his Wharf is not exceeded (if equalled) by any in North-America, for Convenience, either to the Planter or Merchant.—No Dock in Town safer for the Coasters than his.—No Stores, not even Barns, more secure from Fire.

He has now Stores that will contain near Ten Thousand Barrels of Rice, and the Planter who will land his Crop of Rice at his Wharf, may depend, that neither he nor his Factor shall ever be under the Necessity of selling any Part of it contrary to his own Judgment, if he does not like the Going Price (either for Want of Storage, or Porters to store it on any sudden Change of Weather) as has frequently been the Case.

He shall never forget the Obligations he is under to several planting Gentlemen, who so generously introduced his Wharf into Business, and have established it therein—not only contrary to the Opinion, but against the united ungenerous Opposition of great Numbers.—And he flatters himself, that if it pleases God to enable him to finish his Works, which he hopes will be done in a very little more Time, that they will be of general Utility to the Public.

In short, the Planter who uses his Wharf, may be assured, That he will not suffer himself to be influenced or intimidated, from reserving for him, every Chance in his Power, to dispose of his Crop to the best Advantage. And the Gentlemen in Trade may depend, that he will make it his Study to give their Vessels all possible Dispatch; and he can assure them, that already more than Thirty Thousand Barrels of Rice have been shipped off at his Wharf, which he knows has not cost the Shippers for Porterage TEN POUNDS Currency ALTOGETHER.——That the Front of his Wharf is so soon dry, after the heaviest Rains, that the Weather must be extreme bad indeed, if a Day, or even an Hour, is at any Time lost in dispatching a Vessel at any Part of it:—And that such Gentlemen as transact the Bulk of their Business thereat, shall never want for any Quantity of Storage, either occasionally for their Vessels at the Wharf, or for the Cargoes of such as they may expect.

MARCH 6, 1773. Christopher Gadsden

In the mean Time, those to whom he is indebted, may call and receive Payment.

THE pleaſant and commodious HOUSE

PAINT and WASHES.

O you, my fair readers, this article is particularly addreſſed!—and Heaven ſend it may have a happy influence upon ſome of you.

What a collection of filth and trumpery have we here!—paint and paſtes! greaſe and waſhes!—choicely diſpoſed, and carefully preſerved in boxes and gallipots, in pans and platters!

What a labour to live, if all theſe are neceſſary!

Know ye not the wretches who invented and compounded them?—Why then I'll tell you.——

They were of human form, ſuch as made a livelihood of cheating and corrupting the underſtanding of fraileſt humanity.

They would, by the groſs, ſell lovely ladies (once ſparkling) eyes—for no more than twelve pence!—to be afterwards diſſected, diſplayed, and retailed in object-glaſſes!

Strip ſofteſt ſkins! (once pure and lily white, now parched and cruſted!)—and vend them to beaſtly chapmen for baſeſt purpoſes—at leſs than half a crown a hide!—(they deſerved not a comlier name, nor a better price, by that time.)

Pluck out their pearly teeth!—and wantonly ſell them to idle boys, for chuck ſtones, as doits a dozen!

Their delicate nails!—they valued no more than the rude parings of their own!

Their dainty locks!—(once deſcending in ſweeteſt ringlets?)—by wicked artifice much changed in hue—would they next miſchievouſly eradicate! ſtill drawing out, from day to day, by-hairs and handfuls, till they had not left them a ſingle hair upon their heads!

"That was wanton cruelty indeed!—for what end could they anſwer?"

None but the moſt vile!—for the life was gone!—much better might be gathered among the manſions of the dead, even after ſeveral years interment!—Still they might be uſeful in ſome ſort—nothing is caſt away in a trading nation—they might ſerve to ſtuff cuſhions and pack ſaddles.

Think what time you waſte in deforming, where you propoſe decoration and amendment!

Think to what nobler purpoſes that time might be allotted!

Think what pains you take to render yourſelves diſtaſtful, whom Nature has made ſo charming, ſo inviting!——ſweeteſt of all her ſweets!

A moment's reflection will point out to you that no ingratitude towards Heaven can equal your's.

Figure to yourſelves the moſt haughty and horrible ſpectre that ever affrighted fancy made up! Such is the figure of that monſter—Ingratitude towards Heaven!

What lifts the head, and gracefully falls the ſhoulders—like Innocence?

What vermilion can vie with the maiden bluſh of Modeſty?

Only Benevolence can add luſtre to the eye.

The ear is deaf to true harmony, at which the voice of Diſtreſs finds not a ready entrance.

No feeling, like Pity——no ſmell, like the fragrant breath of Love——no taſte, without Goodneſs!

All paint and waſhes are pernicious! Ye bedaub your minds in the ſelf-ſame inſtant that ye decorate your bodies—ye leave ſtains there, which no Fullers earth, nor time, can expunge.

Believe me, Ladies! nothing clears the complexion, ſmoothes the ſkin, and keeps wrinkles at a diſtance—like Fair Virtue and Fair Water.

CUPID turned Auctioneer;

Or, Mrs. Cornely's Sale at Carliſle-Houſe.

THE firſt lot, ladies, is a thing of the neuter gender, fit for every purpoſe—but one;—'tis one of the ſweeteſt Macaronies that ever perfumes and coſmetics made delectable to a fine lady; and to enhance his value the higher, and make him more acceptable to your arms, he is a Captain—a Captain ladies!—and the bloodieſt part of his ſweet diſpoſition is his Stock; not his ſtock of impudence, though in that he is not wanting; 'tis his real ſtock, Ladies,—a new ſtroke of dreſs—to convey an idea which his unſheathed ſword never merited. Come, don't peep through your fan-ſticks—— time and delight. Come, sniff your eau de luce, and bid for this parrot of manhood! &c.

The theme of the next lot is the very classical oil of Oratory. Advance, plump Widow of the loins of surly BOB. Do not fidget, gentle Bridget; I'll answer for it, you will fetch a purse.

LADIES and GEMMEN,

This is a delicate morsel for the city—a fine mouthful for the scum of the city! Can you look upon the radiance of such dazzling beauty, and not squint and blink like owls in the meridian Sun? Here is genuine, orthodox Court wit!—Bridget has a long Lane, and a sweet clapper of loquacity.—She would answer any gardener's purpose to keep the sparrows from his peas in the summer. She has a claim on the Admiralty, before the Longitudinal Harrison, for the perpetual motion.

No time-piece can keep pace with this piece! The harum scarum Dutch clock is music—piano—to her rattle-rattle voice! She's the punster of Princes—the wit of the Ladies' Whites—the Connoisseur of the Pantheon—and the jest of Jonathan's. Ye greasy, sleepy, leaden-ey'd citizens who eat five pounds of Turtle before an idea gallops through your mental bogs, wherein the very ignis fatuus or Genius loses its delusive quality, and sticks solemn, fast, and dead in the abyss of your heads—will none of you buy up this Sappho of St. James's?——Who has lowled you with universal dullness?—you should make a purchase of her to court her wit, and turn her satire on your sulicitors, for fear she may exercise it against you; as the Indians worship the Devil to keep his Highness of Hell in good humour.

What say you for bouncing Bridget, Master Sawbridge? Your little Dame rather looks despondent; we may sooner get patriotism out of you, than a smile out of her—what say you for this feather-bed of fat for a long winter?—You want a little warm flesh to cuddle your bag of bones. There is no fornication without friction—no electricity without mutual, opposite rubbings.—Motion, motion, Master Sawbridge, made the world;—matter and motion are the first principles of Moses and the Prophets. Come, ye gobbling Cits, who bids for this sunny firebrand?—Not a word yet!—Lady Bridget, do say something for yourself.

CIT.

Come, I don't care if I do say a trifle——. A five-and-threepence! 'tis the price of recreation? and thank our Gracious King for so considering of our passions, as to lower the price of the indulgence of them. She will make a special bar-wench at a City coffee-house!——O 'twas an excellent stroke of our Monarch! for upon that coin's issue the price of pleasure fell cent. per cent.

CUPID.

A five-and-threepence!—Don't be dejected, Lady; wit and great parts have ever been under-rated.——HOMER had not a groat, and SAPPHO had not a smock to her back till she stole one off a hedge in Mytelene. Genius and Fortune were ever at variance, and will be, while the scum of the earth can grovel gold in all places.—She goes, she rides!—O fye upon you, ye sons of solid pudding!—Shall she fall from a Square to Gutter Lane?—Shall she who has charmed the ring of the Court, ring the bar-bell of an Inn?—It must be so.—Ah Bridget, Bridget, thou must be knocked down for humble Five-and-threepence!—Going—quivering—going—gone!

On ROMPING.

I.

JENNY, skilled in prudish airs,
Nor frisky, pert, nor gay;
Tho' constantly she says her pray'rs,
Will sometimes romp and play,

II.

Why not? the Goddesses above,
As saucy Poets show,
In Jove's all-spacious palace love
To romp like nymphs below.

III.

Some sages say, that matter hurl'd
Thro' space etherial hither,
By romping atoms form'd the world,
Well jumbled all together.

IV.

Dame Nature first the romp began;
And ages all evince,
That woman fondly mad hath ran
With romping ever since.

V.

Thus whilst at balls, with air genteel,
Each flowing form we see,
Dancing, in fact, is romping still
With regularity.

VI.

Hence routs and balls a romp I call,
Tho' by a Lady made;
And, what's the greatest romp of all,
A midnight masquerade.

VII.

'Tis hence sly Jenny's artful life
Receives the general stamp;
'Tis hence, unless she is a wife,
She sometimes loves to romp.

VIII.

Then reader, since a romp, that moral learn,
Whether I've hit or missed the mark;
That you may gambol, romp, or sport,
Too deep it wounds our hearts.

FAREWEL. to 1772.

NOW the leaden year is done,
Such as never ſaw the ſun;
Such no Time has e'er produc'd;
Such no Poet hath traduc'd.
Now that taſk is left to me,
I'll expoſe their infamy;
I'll recount the tale again,
And recount each putrid ſtain.
Such a chief, and ſuch a gang,
Such as Fielding cannot hang;
Such corruption, ſuch abuſes,
Two ſuch dirty, venal Houſes;
Such a ſcene of fornication
Never ſtigmatiz'd a nation;
Such Hindoſtan vile Directors,
Such Lord Mayors, and ſuch Protectors;
Such a City, ſuch a Town,
Such aſſociates round the Crown;
Such a Queen, and ſuch a race,
Are the only ſprigs of Grace;
Such preferments, ſuch diſaſters,
Such damn'd ſervants, and ſuch maſters;
Such lewd wives, and chaſter whores,
never foul'd theſe virtuous ſhores;
Such luxurious diſſipation
Never over-run the nation;
Such deſtructions in our trade
Bankruptcy hath never made;
Such a chain of helliſh evil
Muſt conduct us to the devil,
Unleſs Virtue doth appear,
To protect the riſing year.
Farewel, venal Seventy-two!
ENGLAND thy guidance will for ever rue!

By His Excellency the Right Honourable Lord CHARLES-GREVILLE MONTAGU, Captain-General, Governor, and Commander in Chief, in and over the said Province, and Vice-Admiral of the same,

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, by a Petition signed by several of the Inhabitants of this Province, settled on or near the Boundary Line, between this Province and North-Carolina, by Virtue of Grants from the Governor of North-Carolina, this Day presented to me in Council, it appears, That the Proclamation issued by me, on the Nineteenth Day of June last, setting forth, That "Whereas, "by the Continuation of the Boundary Line, between this "Province and North-Carolina, which had lately been run, "in Pursuance of His MAJESTY'S INSTRUCTIONS to the "Governors of both Provinces, several Plantations which had "been settled by Virtue of Grants from the Governor of North-"Carolina, fell within this Government. IN ORDER to "preserve to the Proprietors of such Grants, the equitable "Right they had to the Lands mentioned therein, I DID, "by the Advice of His Majesty's Council, issue my Pro-"clamation; THEREBY STRICTLY FORBIDDING all the "Deputy-Surveyors of this Province, from laying any Warrant "on Lands for which Grants had been obtained in North-"Carolina; AND notifying to all Persons possessed of, or in-"titled unto, such Grants, that they might have Grants for the "same from this Government, on their producing such Grants, "without their personal Attendance at Charles-Town, provided "Application was made for the same within Twelve Months from "the Date thereof," had not been sufficiently notified to the Persons for whose Benefit it was intended; and the Time therein mentioned, for them to come and take out Grants for those Lands, will be therefore too short; I THEREFORE, taking the same into Consideration, have thought fit, by and with the Advice of His Majesty's Honourable Council, to issue this my Proclamation, hereby strictly forbidding all Deputy-Surveyors from laying any Warrants on the Land settled by Virtue of such Grants; AND FURTHER, notifying to all Persons possessed of, or intitled unto, such Grants or Conveyances, that the Time for their applying to have a Confirmation of the same, will be prolonged till the First Day of January next.
